Ruth Hunt Candies

It all began in the kitchen of her Mt. Sterling, KY home, where Ruth Tharpe Hunt served homemade sweets to her bridge club. In 1921 she decided to start a small candy business. Today, still located in Mt. Sterling, Ruth Hunt Candies remains a Kentucky landmark.

"Blue Monday" Candy Bar

Make Kentucky's best kept secret your new discovery! Described by customers as "totally unique, sophisticated and addicting", no candy Ruth Hunt produces generates as many letters or phone calls.

Cream Candy

Historically, only a fortunate few with roots in Kentucky have been able to experience this unique candy. Grandmother's Cream Candy required pure heavy cream, chilled marble slabs, a pulling hook, and a secret recipe, and so does Ruth Hunt's. Available throughout the year, it remains Ruth Hunt's most popular item.

The bourbon ball is a confection that is unique to Kentucky. This chocolate and Bourbon treat was first produced in Kentucky and is now as much a part of Kentucky bluegrass hospitality as the mint julep and the bourbon whiskey it contains.

Kentucky Favorites

Salt Rising Bread

Like beaten biscuits, salt rising bread originated in the early 1800's partly due to the scarcity of leavening agents (yeast). It relied on a fermented mixture of warm milk or water, flour, cornmeal, sugar and salt to give it rising power. The result of a four step process, salt rising bread has a very smooth texture with a tangy flavor and aroma.
$3.99/loaf

Jam Cake

Fresh pecans, Windstone Farms Blackberry Jam, nutmeg, cocoa, ground cinnamon.....only the finest ingredients are good enough for our made-from-scratch Jam Cakes. Covered with rich, creamy caramel icing, our Jam Cakes are guaranteed moist and delicious and are sure to be the perfect ending to your holiday meal. We know you'll enjoy this delectable Kentucky Christmas tradition.
